Dear Mr. Garbarini: We have just been retained by the defendants in the above-captioned action. I left you a voicemail today requesting an extension of time to respond to the Complaint -- which is especially necessary given the fact that I am currently engaged in a multi-week virtual trial before the Copyright Royalty Board. One of the documents with which I've been provided is the Waiver of Service form attached. We are prepared to execute such a form for each defendant (while reserving all rights, of course), or to enter into a simple Stipulation, as a mechanism to achieve an initial adjournment until sixty days after July 15 (as is provided in the Waiver of Service form). Is that acceptable on your end? I'd appreciate a response as soon as possible.

Regards, Ken
